POINTS OF INTEREST

□ CONNECT with a Career Counselor at the WorkForce Center and ATTEND some workshops:

• Create a Cover Letter & Resume:

A resume should be tailor-made for each position you apply to. Find out how best to show what you can do.

• Learn about networking and social media:

How to network; setting up professional email accounts, and how social media can impact your job search.

• Practice Interviewing:

Identify your strengths and learn how to communicate those in an interview.

□ APPLY FOR JOBS and keep an organized job search record. For example, clip together a copy of the job posting you applied for, a copy/printout of the application and resume or other documents you attached. A flash drive also comes in handy to store this electronic job search information, bring it to the WorkForce Center to use Resource Room computers for all of your job search and application needs! There are even knowledgeable people there who can answer all your job search questions and it's FREE!

DESTINATION

□ FOLLOW UP

with potential employers after applying by calling or stopping at the worksite. Recommend following up 1x/week until the position is filled. This is your opportunity to express how interested you are and learn about the company—employers hire those who show they want to work for them!

□ BE PREPARED TO INTERVIEW

Appropriate dress and grooming is a must; practice answering common interview questions and research the company before you go. www.careeronestop.org

□ SEND THANK YOU card or email

to all the interviewers immediately after the interview.
